

The Bladerunner range is futuristic in design and technically advanced. Her unique hull shape means that she can cope with the rough sea conditions at high speeds and yet remain comfortable and stable. She is one of the fastest and the most efficient high performance luxury sports cruisers in the world today. In 2005 the BladeRunner 51 smashed the Round Britain World Record in an astonishing 27 hours and 10 minutes.

